

MEMBERSHIP: APPLICATION FOR MEMBERS OF THE EXISTING DOCKLANDS HISTORY GROUP TO JOIN THE NEW CHARITABLE INCORPORATED ORGANISATION

The Docklands History Group has applied to Charity Commission to register as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO). The Group is pleased to report that this application was successful and that the Charity Commission has now registered the Group with the Registered Charity Number 1184430. All existing members of the present Docklands History Group are invited to join the new organisation and should apply to do this by filling in this form and sending it to the Membership Secretary at the address given below. Providing that you are a fully paid up member (or joint member at the same address) of the present Group there is no fee to join the new CIO and the membership will run until the end of the present membership year which ends at the end of March.

Duty of members: It is the duty of each member of the CIO to exercise his or her powers as a member of the CIO in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO. By signing this application form it is on the understanding that you accept this condition.

Please note: By joining the new Incorporated Docklands History Group, it is on the understanding that as with the existing Group you agree to be opted in to receive information regarding the conferences, publications and the other activities of the Group. It is also on the understanding that, so that we can send you this information, the Group may retain in its mailing list your name and email address and any other details, other than those relating to the payment, that you provide with this application including after your membership ceases. If you do not wish to receive material from the Docklands History Group in future, please contact us at admin@docklandshistorygroup.org.uk or by writing to the address at the bottom of the form or by using the unsubscribe button on emails we send you and we will remove your contact details from our mailing list.
